

SHARE AND CREATE SINGULAR TALES WHILE ENJOYING BUSHMILLS® SINGLE MALT IRISH WHISKEYS THIS CHRISTMAS

IRELAND'S OLDEST WHISKEY DISTILLERY OFFERS THREE SINGLE MALTS PERFECT FOR ENTERTAINING AND GIFTING – AND IS SET TO UNVEIL A SINGULAR TALE WITH GEORGE THE POET

London July 2021: This Christmas, Bushmills®, the world's oldest Irish whiskey distiller is inviting you to taste a drop of history and share a Singular Tale with their range of pioneering and award-winning single malts. With a 400-year history there is no other whiskey as steeped in remarkable stories and traditions passed down through generations. Three original Single Malts – and with more to be revealed soon – invite you and those you care about to create and share your own Singular Tales over this special range. Bushmills' rich heritage in craftsmanship and storytelling has even inspired George the Poet to pay homage to the community of craftspeople with a poem to be released in September.

Bushmills Irish Whiskey are custodians of an exceptional inventory of hundreds of thousands of ageing casks, sourced from all over the world. The Bushmills range of elegant Single Malt whiskeys – comprising a 10-, 16- and 21-Year-Old – are perfect for the festive season. The gentle, smooth 10-year-old provides the perfect base for a Christmas cocktail whereas the bold and spicy 16-year-old and the rare and complex 21-year-old are best served neat to truly savour their complexity. Whether you're entertaining or searching for a special gift the Bushmills Single Malt range has the answer.

Bushmills heritage is rooted in the local community, including a unique in-house cooperage at The Old Bushmills Distillery run by a father and son duo, which has been in the Kane family for 100 years. This sense of family is never stronger than at Christmas. Its new partnership with poet and performer George the Poet celebrates the Singular Tales that shape our lives and enrich our connections with others. It's anchored in a mutual appreciation of the art and craft of whiskey making and poetry and performance – and they're excited by the prospect of bringing others together over a dram or two this festive season.

For those looking for a warming wintery suggestion of how to best enjoy the Single Malts - Bushmills offer their take on the classic hot toddy. The perfect warmer to enjoy those chilly evenings sharing tales with friends and family.
